Seaside Downtown Development Association

Enhancing the environmental and economic viability of

Downtown Seaside for the local community and visitors

MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL

SDDA membership renewal invoices have been mailed. If you have not received one perhaps it means you might like to consider being part of the Downtown Association. Our mission is always to enhance the environmental and economic viability of downtown Seaside for the local community and visitors. A worthy cause indeed.

SDDA BOARD OF DIRECTORS ELECTION

It's Not Too Late!

August 10th is the last day to get your name in the running to be on the SDDA Board of Directors! If you are proud of Seaside, community-minded and have a desire to make good things great and great things even better, then we'd love to have you on our Board! Currently we have four people who have submitted their names to be in the election:

- Darren Gooch, Sunset Empire Park & Recreation District
- Michael Ferrell, Beach Blonde Salon
- Katie Parsons, Holiday Inn Express Seaside
- Sandie Dodson, Sterling Savings Bank

Now is your chance to make a difference! Call the SDDA Office at 503-717-1914 to be included!

FLOWER BASKETS

We're sure you've seen the beautiful hanging Flower Baskets all around town. How could you miss them! They have filled out with gorgeous flowers and lush greenery. Our campaign is still underway and if you haven't yet had a chance to donate, now would be a great time! If you have donated, Thank You once again! We truly appreciate all the donations, large and small. Each one is important and the donors will be listed in the Seaside Signal in September!
